Glasgow, 31st July Blazing Griffin releases 'Seize the Fire', 6th Episode of the 8-chapter puzzle-solving detective video game Murder Mystery Machine on Apple Arcade.

'Seize the Fire' sees the deepening mystery surrounding the death of local politician Frank Daniels. When his offices are burnt down, detectives CC and Nate return to question Daniel's killer in prison, only to be faced with a dark turn when they arrive to the news of his death. Everything points to something larger at play and the detectives must delving into the corridors of political power and the ink stained press offices to uncover the truth of Frank's murder.

Murder Mystery Machine features:

- Deduction Mind Map: Deduce, solve, accuse. Players collect every piece of evidence on their detectives workspace, this is where players use their deduction skills to create the story of events as they connect a complex web of suspects and motives.
- Complex Dioramas: Players are thrown into a crime scene where they can rotate, zoom and explore - each presented in a beautiful diorama style - that gets right at the heart of the crime solving experience.
- Modern Noir Style: Modern noir world scenes lit with a neon glow explore unique atmospheric scenes populated with stylised characters to enhance the wider mystery of the game
